Abstract

The dimension of the center of associative algebras is considered one of the important invariant to study some properties geometrical classification of associative algebras. In this regards, we in this work find the center of complex associative algebras of dimension four by using an existing classification result of low dimensional associative algebra, .