

Abstract

It is noteworthy that the left annihilator of low dimensional associative algebras are adapted in this research because of this concept plays a rigorous role in geometric classifications of associative algebras.

Using an existing algebraically classification result of low dimensional associative algebra, we find the left annihilator of four- dimensional associative algebras over complex field.